PLEASE SEE INSIDE FOR MASS TIMES

FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

Last Saturday, October 28, we had our Trunk or Treat celebration after the 4:00pm Mass. We had our families come with the trunk of their cars decorated with some Catholic theme, and the children dressed up as saints. Several boys dressed up as St. George, who slayed the dragon, because any reason a boy can find to carry a sword is a good one.

At the opening procession for the Mass, the children joined with their saint costumes as a reminder of the constant presence of the saints and angels of heaven who assist us. They are with us at every Mass!

Thank you to Sarah and all the parents who helped plan, organize, and celebrate that evening with the Saints!

In Christ,
Father Amato
