FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER VAN LIESHOUT

Praised be Jesus Christ!

If you remember back to last Lent, not only was our experience of Catholic life and practice irreversibly rocked between the third and fourth Sundays as we went into lockdown, but things were so extreme and unpredictable (at least during those early weeks) that we were even dispensed from the normal Lenten discipline of abstinence from meat (the classic Lenten "meatless Fridays").

I'm not sure if it's a sign of how little or how far that we have come, but I am at least happy to say that while the dispensation from Mass remains in place, the normal Lenten fast and abstinence rules are in full effect this year! As minimal as these penitential requirements are, they still have a very real and noteworthy impact on Catholic identity, creating a public and social awareness of the concepts of sacred liturgical time, bodily penance, and the visible nature of the Church in the public square. So I rejoice at this, albeit, minimal sign of normalcy.

The fast and abstinence rules are included in this bulletin. But as you review them, I always take this opportunity to remind us that these are the bare minimums. Particularly in the area of fasting, keep in mind that almost every single generation of Catholics since the time of Christ has had more intense fasting expectations than we currently have. The fast that we are obliged to keep on only two days (Ash Wednesday and Good Friday) was exactly what our predecessors in the faith were expected to keep every day of Lent, except for Sundays and other major solemnities! And while I feel that I have no natural aptitude for rigorous fasts, I also recognize that few things have as immediate and powerful effect on my spiritual life as a few dedicated days of fasting. Contrary to what some might expect, I almost immediately feel less lethargic in my duties, with more energy, and greater desire for prayer, study, and spiritual reading. It is a real testament to the theological truth that we are not "souls-trapped-in-bodies" but real "body-soul composites" where even activities which are predominantly corporeal in nature can have serious spiritual effects.

As another gradual step toward some kind of normalcy, I have also decided that starting Ash Wednesday, I will once again be distributing Holy Communion during Mass (instead of afterwards) for daily Masses only—with a view towards doing so at Sunday Masses as well immediately after Easter. Please note that in all cases, I will keep in place the purification/sanitization procedures that I have been using for the past several months.

Back in June when we initially re-opened, I chose to distribute Holy Communion in this fashion—an option permitted by universal and Diocesan norms—for several practical and pastoral reasons.

First, very simply, I wanted the time and flexibility to set up the purification procedures that I use in the parish in way that wouldn't seem to detract from the sacrality of the Mass itself as a unified whole.

Secondly, I had no idea how long (initially) the distribution of Holy Communion would take according to this "method" and I greatly feared exacerbating an already too common bad habit of people leaving Mass after Holy Communion, but before the final blessing.

Thirdly, I wanted to be sensitive to those who for whatever reason were not going to be receiving Holy Communion, or planned on doing so less frequently—but with greater spiritual preparation and intentionality so as to benefit more effectively from each individual reception.

And fourthly, I wanted to highlight an important theological principle that the Mass itself has value and gives graces to those in physical attendance even distinct from our particular reception of Holy Communion. It is not that someone who doesn't receive Holy Communion hasn't actual fully attended Mass. And the idea that the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar is something like a "participation trophy" (to put it bluntly) is a sentiment that has been incredibly destructive of Eucharistic faith.

Please don't misunderstand—the Eucharist is powerful medicine of sanctification and spiritual life. But like any powerful medicine, this Sacrament should be received with utmost love, devotion, and preparation.

As mentioned above, for this time being this will only affect the practice at daily Masses, and I will likely look to do the same for Sunday Masses immediately after Easter.

In the hearts of Jesus and Mary, Father Peter Van Lieshout

The Perpetual Novena of the Miraculous Medal will be said every Monday, 10 minutes before the noon Mass at St. Dominic Church.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

Traditionally in the Catholic Church, the Lenten season is a time of penance, prayer, the reception of the sacraments, charity and almsgiving. The following are various Lenten regulations:

Ash Wednesday & Good Friday—These are days of Fast & Abstinence from meat. There is a limit of one full meal on these days for everyone between the ages of 18 & 59 inclusive.

All Fridays of Lent—Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence from Meat. All who are 14 and older are bound to abstain totally from meat.

Other Weekdays of Lent—There is no obligation to fast. However, voluntary acts of self-denial (like giving up something difficult) are recommended.

CONFESSION TIMES

SATURDAYS—3-3:45 PM in the sacristy at St. Dominic's
WED. thru FRI.—5:30-6 PM & SUNDAY—7:15-7:45 AM in the Sacristy at St. Felix.

WANTED: AFTER MASS CLEANERS AT ST. DOMINIC'S

Do you usually attend Mass at St. Dominic's on Monday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday? If yes, can you please stop in the back of church and sign up to help clean the pews after Mass on one of those days. There is a sign up sheet that covers the next few weeks. If we can get enough people to sign up, then each person would only have to help once a month or so. Many hands make light work; so please sign up.

As Covid cases continue to spread, please remember to wear a mask to church and maintain your social distance.

For those who are at risk and/or fearful of contracting the Corona virus, the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass remains in effect until further notice.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES

Our Parish's best wishes go out to OUR NONAGENARIAN,

HELEN FLETCHER,

who will celebrate her 92nd Birthday on 2/19.
