MAGNIFICAT WAY OF THE CROSS

Compliments of the K of C Ladies Auxiliary

The K of C Ladies Auxiliary have donated copies of the Magnificat Way of the Cross for you to take and use during Lent. They are available for pick up in the back of each church.

REMEMBER TO KEEP THESE LENTEN REGULATIONS

Traditionally, the Lenten season is a time of penance, prayer, the reception of the sacraments, charity and almsgiving. The following are various Lenten regulations:

Good Friday—In addition to Ash Wednesday, Good Friday is also a day of Fast & Abstinence from meat. Everyone between the ages of 18 & 59 inclusive are limited to one full meal on this day.

All Fridays of Lent—Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence from Meat. All those 14 & up are bound to abstain from meat.

Other Weekdays of Lent—There is no obligation to fast. However, voluntary acts of self-denial (like giving up something difficult) are recommended.

CONFESSION TIMES

SATURDAYS—3-3:45 PM in the sacristy at St. Dominic's
WED. thru FRI.—5:30-6 PM & SUNDAY—7:15-7:45 AM in the Sacristy at St. Felix.

WANTED: AFTER MASS CLEANERS AT ST. DOMINIC'S

Do you usually attend Mass at St. Dominic's on Monday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday? If yes, can you please stop in the back of church and sign up to help clean the pews after Mass on one of those days. There is a sign up sheet that covers the next few weeks. If we can get enough people to sign up, then each person would only have to help once a month or so. Many hands make light work; so please sign up.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES

Our Parish's best wishes go out to OUR NONAGENARIAN,

GERRY NARENDORF,

who will celebrate her 92nd Birthday on 2/23.

FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER VAN LIESHOUT

Praised be Jesus Christ!

Occasionally in a homily or some other teaching I will use the phrase: "Mental Prayer." For example, on Ash Wednesday I said something like: "Lent is the perfect time to carve out space in your schedule for daily mental prayer...at least 15 minutes a day."

The textbook definition of mental prayer is something like this: "a silent elevation and application of our mind and heart to God in order to offer Him our homages and to promote His glory by our advancement in virtue" (Tanquerey, The Spiritual Life). More simply, mental prayer is just that free flowing prayer that comes from the heart and takes place in the silence of our souls, as opposed to reciting vocally, memorized prayers like the Our Father or the Hail Mary.

When someone asks me to explain more specifically how to engage in mental prayer, I often print off a little handout that I made based on the instructions given by St. Alphonsus Liguori. I include this method below. Feel free to cut out this section of the bulletin and keep this helpful guide in your Bible or prayer book!

In the hearts of Jesus and Mary,

Father Peter Van Lieshout

Mental Prayer According to the Method of St. Alphonsus

Mental prayer consists of three parts; the preparation, the meditation, and the conclusion.

Part I: The Preparation

The preparation consists of three acts:

- an act of faith in the presence of God;
- an act of humility, with a short act of contrition; and
- an act of prayer to be enlightened.

These three acts can be made as follows:

For the first: My God; I believe that you art present with me, and I adore you with all the affection of my soul.

For the second: O Lord by my sins I deserve to be now in hell. I repent, O Infinite Goodness! with my whole heart, of having offended you.

For the third: My God for the love of Jesus and Mary, give me light in this prayer, that I may profit by it. (Then say a Hail Mary to the Most Blessed Virgin, that she may obtain light for us; and a Glory be to the Father, to St. Joseph, to your guardian angel, and to your patron saint, for the same end.)

These acts should be made with attention, but briefly; and then you go on directly to the meditation.

Part II: The Meditation (The Main Part)

In the meditation you can always make use of some book, at least at the beginning, and stop where you find yourself mostly touched. St. Francis de Sales says that in this we should do as the bees, which settle on a flower as long they find any honey in it, and then pass on to another.

It should be observed that the goal of the meditation is three-fold: to make affections, to pray, and to make resolutions;

In these three consists the profit to be derived from mental prayer.

Affections. After you have meditated on some eternal truth, and God has spoken to your heart, you must also speak to God; and first, by forming affections, be they acts of faith, of thanksgiving, of humility, or of hope; but above all, repeat the acts of love and contrition. St. Thomas says, that every act of love merits for us the grace of God and paradise: Every act of love merits eternal life. Each act of contrition obtains the same thing. Acts of love are such as these: 'My God; I love you above all things!' 'I love you with all my heart!' 'I desire to do your will in all things.' 'I rejoice that you are infinitely happy!'—and the like. For an act of contrition it is enough to say: O Infinite Goodness, I repent of having offended you!

Prayers. In the second place, you must pray; ask God to enlighten you, to give you humility or other virtues, to grant you a good death and eternal salvation; but above all, his love and holy perseverance. And when the soul is in great aridity, it is sufficient to repeat: 'My God, help me!' 'Lord, have mercy on me!' 'My Jesus, have mercy!'

If you do nothing but this, your prayer will succeed exceedingly well.

Resolution. In the third place, before finishing your prayer, you must form a particular resolution; as, for instance, to avoid some occasion of sin, to bear with an annoyance from some person, to correct some fault, and the like.

Part III: The Conclusion

Finally, in the conclusion, three acts are to be made:

1. We must thank God for the inspirations we have received;
2. We must make a determination to observe the resolutions we have made;
3. We must ask God, for the love of Jesus and Mary, to help us to keep our resolution.

The prayer concludes by the recommendation of the souls in purgatory, the prelates of the Church, sinners, and all our relatives and friends, for which we may say an Our Father and a Hail Mary. St. Francis of Sales exhorts us to choose some thought which may have struck us more especially in our prayer, that we may remember it during the rest of the day."
