FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER VAN LIESHOUT

Praised be Jesus Christ!

Last week I quoted at length some of St. Louis de Montfort's categories of false Marian devotees. This week I would like to include this great saint's descriptions of what true Marian devotion looks like.

What follows is an extended quote from his book "True Devotion to Mary."

St. Louis de Monfort's Characteristics of True Devotion to Mary

- 1. Interior - True devotion to our Lady is interior; that is to say, it comes from the spirit and the heart. It flows from the esteem we have of her, the high idea we have formed of her greatness, and the love which we have for her.
- 2. Tender - It is tender; that is to say, full of confidence in her, like a child's confidence in his loving mother. This confidence makes the soul have recourse to her in all its bodily or mental necessities, with much simplicity, trust, and tenderness. It implores the aid of its good Mother, at all times, in all places, and about all things; in its doubts, that it may be enlightened; in its wanderings, that it may be brought into the right path; in its temptations, that it may be supported; in its weaknesses, that it may be strengthened; in its falls, that it may be lifted up; in its discouragements, that it may be cheered; in its scruples, that they may be taken away; in its crosses, toils, and disappointments of life, that it may be consoled under them. In a word, in all its evils of body and mind, the soul's ordinary refuge is in Mary, without fearing to be importunate to her or to displease Jesus Christ.
- 3. Holy - True devotion to our Lady is holy; that is to say, it leads the soul to avoid sin, and to imitate in the Blessed Virgin particularly her profound humility, her lively faith, her continual prayer, her universal mortification, her divine purity, her ardent charity, her heroic patience, her angelical sweetness, and her divine wisdom. These are the ten principal virtues of the most holy Virgin.
- 4. Constant - True devotion to our Lady is constant. It confirms the soul in good, and it does not let it easily abandon its spiritual exercises. It makes it courageous in opposing the world in its fashions and maxims, the flesh in its wearinesses and passions, and the devil in his temptations. So that a person truly devout to our Blessed Lady is neither changeable, irritable, scrupulous, nor timid. It is not that such a person does not fall, or change sometimes in the sensible feeling of devotion, or in the amount of devotion itself. But when he falls, he rises again by stretching out his hand to his good Mother. If he loses the taste and relish of devotion, he does not disturb himself because of that; for the just and faithful client of Mary lives on the faith of Jesus and Mary, and not on sentiments and sensibilities.
- 5. Disinterested - Lastly, true devotion to our Blessed Lady is disinterested; that is to say, it inspires the soul not to seek itself but God only, and God in His holy Mother. A true client of Mary does not serve that august Queen from a spirit of lucre and interest, nor for its own good, whether temporal, corporal, or spiritual; but exclusively because she merits to be served, and God alone in her. He does not love Mary precisely because she does him good, or because he hopes in her; but because she is so worthy of love. It is on this account that he loves and serves her as faithfully in his disgusts and drynesses, as in his sweetnesses and sensible fervours. He loves her as much on Calvary, as at the marriage of Cana. Oh! how such a client of our Blessed Lady, who has no self-seeking in his service of her, is agreeable and precious in the eyes of God and of His holy Mother! But in these days how rare is such a sight! It is that it may be less rare that I have taken my pen to put on paper what I have taught, in public and in private, during my missions for many years.

In the hearts of Jesus and Mary,

Father Peter Van Lieshout

We now designate the 4-5 PM hour of Adoration to prayers for Pro-Life issues. Please join us at St. Francis on Thursdays and/or at St. Dominic's on Fridays for a time of silent prayer to end legalized abortion and promote Pro-Life issues.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES

Our Parish's best wishes go out to OUR NONAGENARIAN, JOANNE MASLYN, who will celebrated her 90th Birthday on 5/12.

TODAY (5/16) IS DIOCESAN MISSIONS SUNDAY

through which we honor the Sisters of St. Joseph in Brazil and the Sisters of Mercy in Chile.

We are called to take part in the missionary work of the Church. We may not all have to move to another town or city to do so, but impelled by the Holy Spirit, each one of us is to move beyond our daily concerns, important as they are, to help others live in the faith that sustains us.

Bishop Salvatore Matano calls us to a responsible sharing in the missionary works of the Diocese of Rochester. No diocese is truly a diocese unless it extends beyond its own borders and allows itself to be touched by the presence of other churches.

May we share the gift of faith today by helping our missionary friends with our prayers and a generous gift.

Please remember to wear a mask to church and maintain your social distance. For those who are at risk and/or fearful of contracting the Corona virus, the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass remains in effect.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

If so, please contact Mary Ann Gilman via email (gil@otcmail.com) or phone (315-462-9029) and make arrangements to donate whatever fresh flowers that you may be able to provide. Thank you.

WORLD WIDE ROSARY TO END THE PANDEMIC

Pope Francis has called for a "marathon of prayer" during the month of May to appeal for divine assistance in bringing about an end to the COVID-19 pandemic. Marian shrines around the world have been chosen by the Holy See to lead the rosary each day of the month with specific prayer intentions focused on those impacted by the pandemic.

In the United States, the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. has been asked to lead the Monday, May 17th rosary for the special intention of world leaders and the heads of international organizations as they continue to work to fight the pandemic.

You are invited to join this call to prayer on May 17th at Noon. This event will be livestreamed on the shrine's website at: www.nationalshrine.org/mass.
