FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER VAN LIESHOUT

Praised be Jesus Christ!

I had a theology professor who once made the bold claim that in his opinion God grants to every single parish sufficient spiritual/charismatic gifts to bring about the evangelization of all persons who live within those parish boundaries—but he quickly added that this is basically never actualized in actual fact because those spiritual gifts are not effectively recognized and cultivated.

I have no idea whether or not this is really a defensible claim from the standpoint of strict theological deduction, and I'm not even sure that this professor meant it to be understood as such, but I will say that I am fascinated by the idea.

One reason is that I am fascinated by this is because I am occasionally "haunted" (for lack of a better word) by a certain line in the Code of Canon Law regarding my responsibilities as parish pastor. Canon 528 §1. reads: "A pastor is obliged to make provision so that the word of God is proclaimed in its entirety to those living in the parish."

Notice what this canon says.

It doesn't say that the pastor is obliged to proclaim the word of God in its entirety to "those Catholics who attend Mass on Sundays."

Nor does it say that the pastor is obliged to proclaim it to "all the Catholics who live within the parish."

It simply says without specification that the pastor is to proclaim the word of God to "those living in the parish"...the implication being "everyone" who lives within the parish boundaries!

I've sometimes asked myself: How is this a reasonable expectation? Should I go door to door inviting people to Mass? Should I put ads in the Pennysaver and in the newspaper inviting people to hear special sermons about the truth and beauty of our Catholic faith? Should I shout in the village streets with a mega-phone like some sort of fiery medieval friar? (I'm actually not excluding any of these in principle!)

The fact of the matter is, for every 1 person I might be able to convince/attract/display the truth of the faith to from my own natural and spiritual gifts, there are probably at least 10 times as many people who would remain unconvinced and even dissuaded by the limitations of my own personality and deficiencies.

The only way that the word of God in its entirety can go out to all those living within the parish boundaries is by a sort of "Parish Pentecost"—an outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the parish in such a way that not only do faithful Catholics re-commit themselves to radical lives of holiness, but also those same individuals seek to discover and cultivate whatever particular spiritual gifts they might have for the building up of the Church and for the advance of the Gospel of Christ and put them to use for the kingdom of God.

As the Scripture says:

To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are inspired by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body...and all were made to drink of one Spirit (1 Cor. 12: 7-13).

On this Pentecost Sunday, I ask you directly...

Do you think that the Lord is asking you to take a deeper step in fidelity to him and his Church?—If so, do it!
Is the Lord asking you to make some change in your life so that you can be completely faithful to his Gospel?
—If so, do it!

Can you think of some particular gift that the Lord has given you which you can use to draw people to Christ and his Church?—If so, use it!

Please pray that the power of the Holy Spirit may fall upon our entire parish this Pentecost Sunday in powerful and even unexpected ways.

In the hearts of Jesus and Mary,

Father Peter Van Lieshout

FRESH FLOWERS FOR ST. FELIX & ST. FRANCIS

Do you have a flower garden or flowering bushes? Would you be able to help provide fresh cut flower bouquets for the altar at St. Felix or St. Francis? If so, please contact Mary Ann Gilman via email (gil@ottcmail.com) or phone (315-462-9029) and make arrangements to donate whatever fresh flowers that you may be able to provide. Thank you.

WOMEN OF ST. FRANCIS GERANIUM SALE!

This is the last week to order geraniums from Women of St Francis to support our Youth Faith Formation. Order forms can be found in the back of each church. Pick-ups are Saturday, May 29th - 10am-12pm at St Dominic and 12-2pm at St Francis. Contact maryellendarling@gmail.com with any questions.

NO MASSES OR CONFESSIONS
MONDAY-THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK

Father Van Lieshout will be away this week so there will not be any weekday Masses on May 24th—May 27th and no Confessions on May 26th & 27th.

AN HOUR DURING ADORATION ON THURSDAYS & FRIDAYS DEDICATED TO PRAYER FOR PRO-LIFE ISSUES

We now designate the 4-5 PM hour of Adoration to prayers for Pro-Life issues. Please join us at St. Francis on Thursdays and/or at St. Dominic's on Fridays for a time of silent prayer to end legalized abortion and promote Pro-Life issues.

HOME CARE NEEDED

One of our parishioners is looking to hire someone who can help provide care and light housekeeping for an older family member. If you are interested, please call Diane at 585-289-9495.

The Perpetual Novena of the Miraculous Medal will be said every Monday, 10 minutes before the noon Mass at St. Dominic Church.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Today is the last class of the year. We start at 4 PM with a wrap up time for the teachers, followed by a living Rosary at 4:30 PM and a pot luck dinner after. Weather permitting we will be outside.
