FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER VAN LIESHOUT

Praised be Jesus Christ!

First of all—a happy Mother's Day to all of the Mothers of our parish, living and deceased. And a happy Mother's Day to my own Mom (if, by chance, she happens to read this column)!

As always, the month of May is also an opportunity to grow in our love and devotion to Our Blessed Mother, Mary. In St. Louis de Montfort's famous work, True Devotion to Mary, the saintly author includes a section that I have always found to be helpful entitled: "False Devotions to the Blessed Virgin and False Devotees." In it, he lists seven categories of persons who lack what he considers to be a true and mature love for the Blessed Mother. These categories can serve as a sort of "Examination of Conscience" for those wanting to develop proper love for their spiritual mother. I'll include each category, along with some excerpts from the text (although I encourage you to find the book and read the whole section on your own):

St. Louis de Monfort's Categories of False or Immature Marian devotion

- 1. Critical devotees – Those who "have at bottom some devotion to the holy Virgin, but who criticize nearly all the practices of devotion to her, which the simple people pay simply and holily to their good Mother, because these practices do not fall in with their own humor and fancy...They say that, for their part, they are not fond of these external devotions, and that their minds are not so weak as to give faith to such a number of tales and little histories as are in circulation about our Lady."
- 2. Scrupulous devotees – Those who "fear to dishonor the Son by honoring the Mother, to abase the one in elevating the other." ... "They say: 'We must preach Jesus Christ; this is the solid devotion.' What they say is true in a certain sense, but it is very dangerous, when, by the application they make of it, they hinder devotion to our Blessed Lady, and it is, under the pretext of a greater good, a subtle snare of the evil one. For never do we honor Jesus Christ more than when we are most honoring His Blessed Mother. Indeed we only honor Mary that we may the more perfectly honor Jesus, inasmuch as we only go to her as to the way in which we are to find the end we are seeking, which is Jesus."
- 3. External devotees – Those persons who "make all devotion to our Blessed Lady consist in outward practices. They have no taste except for the exterior of this devotion, because they have no interior spirit of their own."
- 4. Presumptuous devotees – Those who "are sinners abandoned to their passions, or lovers of the world, who, under the fair name of Christians and clients of our Blessed Lady, conceal pride, avarice, impurity, drunkenness, anger, swearing, detraction, injustice, or some other sin. They sleep in peace in the midst of their bad habits, without doing any violence to themselves to correct their faults, under the pretext that they are devout to the Blessed Virgin."
- 5. Inconstant devotees – Those who "are devout to our Blessed Lady by intervals and whims. Sometimes they are fervent and sometimes lukewarm. Sometimes they seem ready to do anything for her, and then, a little afterwards, they are not like the same people....It were better for such persons to load themselves with fewer prayers and practices, and to fulfil them with faithfulness and love."
- 6. Hypocritical devotees – Those who "cloak their sins and sinful habits under her mantle, in order to pass in the eyes of men for what they are not."
- 7. Interested devotees – Those who "have recourse to our Lady only to gain some lawsuit, or to avoid some danger, or to be cured of some illness, or for some other similar necessity, without which they would forget her altogether."

Next week, on the more positive side, I'll include some of the signs that St. Louis de Montfort lists in the next section of his book about what "True" devotion to Mary actually looks like.

In the hearts of Jesus and Mary,
Father Peter Van Lieshout
