FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

We have reached the month of October, and our final stretch to the end of the liturgical year and the beginning of Advent. This is a beautiful time of year with plenty of great feast days coming up. On Thursday of last week, September 29, we celebrated the Feast of the Archangels Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael.

If October 2 were not a Sunday, we would be celebrating the Feast of the Holy Guardian Angels. It is a dogma of our faith that each of us has a guardian angel, assigned to us by God, to assist us on our path to Heaven. They are God's perfect collaborators in His Providence, and they are given to us by our loving Father to guide and protect us. This truth comes from the Scriptures and the unanimous consent of the Fathers. From Scripture we have the consoling words of Jesus in Matthew 18:10: "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father." We even see that nations, groups of people, and churches have angels assigned to them for their protection.

Every day, when I pray during my holy hour, I pray to my guardian angels to continue to guide me, in my thoughts and actions each day, and that they lead me beyond the sacramental veil of the Most of Holy Eucharist whom I am adoring, to see the Lord's true face. I pray I can worship Him with them someday, when I can see them. This is one of the joys we will have in heaven.

Besides the help we receive from our Guardian Angels, we have the help of our Mother Mary, Queen of Angels. This week we also celebrate the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, formerly called Our Lady of Victory. On October 7, 1571, a sea battle took place that was to determine who controlled the Mediterranean Sea, and therefore at least southern Europe. The Muslim forces were threatening to advance further into Europe and their victory seemed inevitable given their naval superiority.

Pope Pius V, a Dominican, knew the power of the holy Rosary and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. He formed the Holy League as the fleet that would be tasked with saving Christian Civilization. Throughout Italy, the churches were filled with the faithful praying the Rosary. On the ships, before the battle, the soldiers were also praying the Rosary, going to confession, fasting, and making all manner of spiritual preparation for a battle that was more than merely a military conflict.

The Turkish fleet had every advantage on the morning of the battle. As the conflict was about to begin, the Christian fleet were rowing against the wind while the Turks had full sails. Then the Mother of God intervened. The wind shifted completely, and the Christian forces now had the wind. They unfurled their battle standard given by Pius V: a giant bright blue banner with the image of the Crucified Lord. It is a long story, but heaven intervened and the Holy League won, leaving only 13 of the 300 Turkish ships left. With 30,000 of the Turks killed in battle, the world wouldn't see such casualties again in a single day until World War I.

Besides the Rosary being prayed and Masses offered, there was another sign that this was Mary's victory. Exactly 40 years earlier, Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared in Mexico and imprinted her miraculous image on the tilma. At that time, the bishop had five replicas made and touched each one to the original. One of those images was on a ship that went into battle. Mary was there. In commemoration of this victory, and in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, this feast day was established to remind us that we always have the help of Heaven in this battle of earthly life.
