FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

This week I simply want to share with you some pictures of the First Communion celebrations last weekend. Also, I want to reiterate how proud I am of them for their devotion and attention to their preparation, their innocence and their desire to be so close to Our Lord. First Communion is one of my favorite weekends of the year, as I have this privilege to feed them with the Body of Christ for the first time. Thank you to their families for bringing them for preparation and continuing to foster the light of Faith within them.

Please continue to pray for them. Pray that they keep their wonder in this Most Holy Sacrament. Pray that every Communion will be as beautiful and holy as their first.

In Christ,
Father Amato
