FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

There is always a certain relief when the rose vestments come out for the 4th Sunday of Lent (Laetare Sunday; and for the 3rd Sunday of Advent) because it signals to us that something different is about to happen, the penances we have undertaken are almost completed. We have now entered the season formerly known as 'Passiontide,' the last two weeks of Lent.

Before I get to that, I want to first express my profound gratitude for all who made such a beautiful St. Joseph Table celebration. It takes a lot of work to pull all of that together. The food was amazing, the music was great, and all the people who came had a wonderful time. It was the way it should be. We will have to figure out more ways to bring people together like that. Below you will see some pictures of Saturday evening.

This weekend marks the beginning of the last third of the Lenten Season. You have probably been experiencing the difficulty of keeping your Lenten disciplines that you have chosen, and perhaps you have even given in a little bit. I want to encourage you to persevere in your Lenten discipline, knowing how joyous it will be on Easter to complete the challenge that we have set for this season. The goal is to come out better, more disciplined and virtuous (and prayerful), than when we started Lent. Even if we grew in our practice of the faith in just the slightest way, that is a victory. The finish line is near. Like being in a race, when we see the finish line, we should have new strength and determination. We sprint to the finish line in anticipation of the joy that will follow.

We rely on images and statues to help us in our prayer as they provoke our imagination and emotions. However, during these last two weeks the statues, images, and crucifix are veiled with a purple cloth. There are several ways this practice developed over the course of the centuries, but the Gospel that was formerly read on this Fifth Sunday was from John 8:46-59, which concludes with the line, "They therefore took up stones to cast at Him; but Jesus hid Himself, and went out from the temple." The Gospel throughout the following week leading up to Palm Sunday showed the increasing tensions between Christ and the authorities. So with the veiling of the statues, we enter into that mystery of our Lord hiding Himself until the appointed time for His arrest. We also look to the familiar comforts of the statues and images and, seeing them veiled, realize a sense of loss, until the glory of Easter is upon us and we again rejoice, surrounded by the full beauty of our churches.

In Christ,
Father Amato

Traditionally, the Lenten season is a time of penance, prayer, the reception of the sacraments, charity and almsgiving. The following are various Lenten regulations:

Good Friday—along with Ash Wednesday, this is a day of Fast & Abstinence from meat. Everyone between the ages of 18 & 59 inclusive are limited to one full meal on this day.

All Fridays of Lent—Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence from Meat. All those 14 & up are bound to abstain from meat.

Other Weekdays of Lent—There is no obligation to fast. However, voluntary acts of self-denial (like giving up something difficult) are recommended.
