ST. PETER'S ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH at the CHURCHES of ST. DOMINIC, ST. FELIX, and ST. FRANCIS

FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

Last week I mentioned the word "Anamnesis," which means "remembering" or "reminiscing." It is the part of the Roman Canon where we recall all the things God has done in the past as we fervently pray to accept our sacrifice now. In this next section of the three-part prayer, we remember three Old Testament "types," or prefigurements, of the Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross, and therefore of the Sacrifice of the Mass.

"Be pleased to look upon these offerings with a serene and kindly countenance, and to accept them, as once you were pleased to accept the gifts of your servant Abel the just, the sacrifice of Abraham, our father in faith, and the offering of your high priest Melchizedek, a holy sacrifice, a spotless victim."

Why, of all the figures in the Old Testament, are Abel, Abraham, and Melchizedek here mentioned?

Genesis 4:3-5 tells us: "In the course of time Cain brought an offering to the Lord from the fruit of the ground, while Abel, for his part, brought the fatty portion of the firstlings of his flock. The Lord looked with favor on Abel and his offering, but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was very angry and dejected." Not only was Abel's offering objectively better because he brought part of the "firstlings of his flock," but his interior disposition was pure and he was a man of justice. The Fathers of the Church point to Abel offering a lamb, which prefigures Christ, the Lamb of God. Abel was also killed on account of his brother's jealousy and anger. Abel is a "type" of Christ, who is both priest and victim.

Genesis 22 tells us how Abraham trusted God and God rewarded him. He was told to sacrifice his only son: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There offer him up as a burnt offering on one of the heights that I will point out to you" (Gen. 22:2). Abraham is a type of the Father, who did not spare His only Son. Of course, God stopped Abraham by sending His angel to him, but he nevertheless was ready to obey God's command (as Jesus unconditionally obeyed His Father). Isaac, like Jesus, silently carried the wood used for the sacrifice and allowed himself to be bound, as Jesus carried the wood of the Cross on which He would offer Himself.

In Genesis 14:18, the mysterious figure of the king and priest Melchizedek appears, and he offers bread and wine to the Most High God for the victory won by Abraham in battle. What is significant here is that a king and priest offered bread and wine, a clear prefiguring of Christ's offering at the Last Supper, the first Mass. In Matthew 22, Jesus explicitly references Psalm 110 as prophesying about Himself. In that Psalm, we see the Son of David, the Messiah, promised: "You are a priest forever in the manner of Melchizedek." Also, Hebrews 7 elaborates on Melchizedek being a "type" of Christ and it even references Psalm 110 again.

We come to the Sacrifice of the Mass with the purity and justice of Abel, the submission of Abraham, and a heart full of thanksgiving, blessing God, as did Melchizedek. We offer this "holy sacrifice, a spotless victim" with longing for the face of God.

*In Christ,
Father Amato*

ATTENTION ADULT VOLUNTEERS

In 2021, the Diocese of Rochester updated its Volunteer Creating a Safe Environment (CASE) Policy to include ALL VOLUNTEERS, not just those that work with children or vulnerable adults. The training is offered exclusively in an online platform, which includes a background check, online training course and electronic acknowledgement of the Volunteer Code of Conduct for adults. Renewal is every three years.

Please keep in mind that this is an effective way to protect our children and vulnerable adults by learning the red flags and signs of abuse. Please consider taking the training whether you are a volunteer or not.

ATTENTION TEEN VOLUNTEERS

Recently, the Diocese of Rochester launched online Creating a Safe Environment (CASE) training for Volunteers who are minors (ages 13-17). This online platform was designed specifically for teen-agers and includes electronic acknowledgement of the Volunteer Code of Conduct for minors, as well as an in-person training at the parish. No background checks.

Please contact Laura Gleeson, CASE Coordinator, with any questions and/or to start the process by phone at 315-462-2961 or by email at Laura.Gleeson@dor.org. No access to a computer, I can help with that.
