ST. PETER'S ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH at the CHURCHES of ST. DOMINIC, ST. FELIX, and ST. FRANCIS
FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

As we make our approach towards the end of the Roman Canon (and the end of the Liturgical Year!) we come to the last of the three-part prayer where we explicitly ask God to receive our offering. This is probably my favorite prayer in the Roman Canon because of the beauty of the imagery given to us here. At this point of the prayer, the priest is instructed to bow profoundly while praying:

"In humble prayer we ask you, almighty God: command that these gifts be borne by the hands of your holy Angel to your altar on high in the sight of your divine majesty, so that all of us who through this participation at the altar receive the most holy Body and Blood of your Son may be filled with every grace and heavenly blessing. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Again, this prayer belongs to the most ancient parts of the Canon. The profound bow of the priest, offering this Sacrifice to God on behalf of the people, indicates the humility that we must have in the Divine Presence. While we see God on this earth only under the sacramental veil, there is yet the full reality of the eternal worship of God in heaven. I have written of that reality here before and have preached about it many times. In this prayer, we are asking God for access to the one heavenly liturgy.

The mention of "your holy Angel" should be awe-inspiring and thrilling. It is not a mere novelty or wish that the angels assist us, but it is deeply biblical and keeping with the nature of angels and their mission. In Isaiah 6:6, we see the prophet touched on his lips with a burning coal that the angel had taken from the heavenly altar, in order to purify him.

In the Book of Tobit 12:12, just before revealing himself as Raphael, the angel tells Tobit: "Now when you, Tobit, and Sarah prayed, it was I who presented the record of your prayer before the Glory of the Lord; and likewise whenever you used to bury the dead." The entire Book of Revelation can be seen as a vision of the heavenly liturgy. Revelation 5:6 and 8:3-6 show us the "Lamb that seemed to have been slain," and also the angels ministering to God at His throne and heavenly altar: "The smoke of the incense along with the prayers of the holy ones went up before God from the hand of the angel" (8:4).

At the Mass, the veil between heaven and earth is torn open. God's angels assist us in this divine worship precisely so that we may participate in the heavenly liturgy. They help us "bridge the gap," so to speak, between heaven and earth. Scripture clearly presents this picture to us, and the prayer of the Church reinforces that understanding.

Pope St. Gregory the Great (d. 604) asks: "What believing soul can doubt that at the hour of the Sacrifice, upon the word of the priest, heaven opens and that choirs of angels assist in this mystery of Jesus Christ, that here the highest is combined with the lowest, the earthly united with the heavenly, the visible and invisible become one?"

Once this Sacrifice is accepted in heaven, it is then through our worthy reception of Holy Communion that we can be "filled with every grace and heavenly blessing." At that moment we are one with all those saints and angels who worship around the altar of the Lamb.

In Christ,
Father Amato
