Alleluia, Alleluia!!

HE IS RISEN!!

to all of our Parishioners!!

ST. PETER'S ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH at the CHURCHES of ST. DOMINIC, ST. FELIX, and ST. FRANCIS
FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

Happy Easter! Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

I want to thank everyone who was involved from each of our churches in the preparation for, and celebration of, our Holy Week and Easter liturgies, and throughout all of Lent. The decorations and flowers were all beautiful, as always, and I know it was edifying for all who came to our churches.

Also, I am always grateful for the altar servers for executing our Sacred Rites with such attentiveness, devotion, and reverence as is fitting for the glory of God. I know that everyone who sees them carry out their duties is edified by them, and we pray God will continue to grow in their hearts the desire to be so close to His Sacred Mysteries.

For your reflection, here again is a quotation from Dom Prosper Guéranger, O.S.B., from his series The Liturgical Year, Volume VII:

"Of all the seasons of the liturgical year Eastertide is by far the richest in mystery. We might even say that Easter is the summit of the Mystery of the sacred Liturgy. The Christian who is happy enough to enter, with his whole mind and heart, into the knowledge and love of the Paschal Mystery, has reached the very center of the supernatural life. Hence it is that the Church uses every effort in order to effect this: what she has hitherto done was all intended as a preparation for Easter. The holy longings of Advent, the sweet joys of Christmas... the contrition and penance of Lent, the heart-rending sight of the Passion – all were given us as preliminaries, as paths, to the sublime and glorious Pasch, which is now ours."

"And that we might be convinced of the supreme importance of this solemnity, God willed that the Christian Easter and Pentecost should be prepared by those of the Jewish Law – a thousand five hundred years of typical beauty prefigured the reality: that reality is ours!"

"During these days, then, we have brought before us the two great manifestations of God's goodness toward mankind – the Pasch of Israel, and the Christian Pasch; the Pentecost of Sinai, and the Pentecost of the Church." ...

"Eternity in heaven is the true Pasch: hence, our Pasch here on earth is the feast of feasts, the solemnity of solemnities. The human race was dead; it was the victim of that sentence, whereby it was condemned to lie mere dust in the tomb; the gates of life were shut against it. But see! The Son of God rises from His grave and takes possession of eternal life. Nor is He the only one that is to die no more, for, as the Apostle teaches us, 'He is the first-born from the dead' (Colossians 1:18). The Church would, therefore, have us consider ourselves as having already risen with our Jesus, and as having already taken possession of eternal life. The holy Fathers bid us look on these fifty days of Easter as the image of our eternal happiness. They are days devoted exclusively to joy; every sort of sadness is forbidden; and the Church cannot speak to her divine Spouse without joining to her words that glorious cry of heaven, the Alleluia, wherewith, as the holy Liturgy says, the streets and squares of the heavenly Jerusalem resound without ceasing. We have been forbidden the use of this joyous word during these past [six] weeks; it behooved us to die with Christ – but now that we have risen together with him from the tomb, and that we are resolved to die no more that death which kills the soul and caused our Redeemer to die on the cross, we have a right to our Alleluia."

In Christ,
Father Amato
