FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

In this third installment of our reflection upon the Roman Canon, we look at the second section to the prayer before the consecration. The priest now asks the Father to keep close to Himself all those who are present:

"Remember, Lord, your servants N. and N. and all gathered here, whose faith and devotion are known to you. For them, we offer you this sacrifice of praise or they offer it for themselves and all who are dear to them, for the redemption of their souls, in hope of health and well-being, and paying their homage to you, the eternal God, living and true."

You will notice at Mass that I make a long pause after the words, "Remember, Lord, your servants." This prayer is called the "Memento of the Living." At that moment when I pause, I am praying for all those who I have in mind who have asked me for their prayers and others whom I know need prayers. When I pause, this is also your opportunity to mention silently to God all those for whom you wish to pray at this Mass. This is part of your active participation. And so, I pray not just for my own needs and intentions, but as the priest who is offering this particular Sacrifice of the Mass, I am asking God, on your behalf, to send down His graces for those intentions as well.

Then we pray for three specific intentions that are mentioned here at every Mass. I had written previously that the Mass is offered for four purposes or "ends": adoration, thanksgiving, propitiation, petition. Here in this prayer, we are praying "for the redemption of their souls." It is a sacrifice of atonement or propitiation. We also pray "in hope of health and well-being." It is a sacrifice of petition.

Finally, we pay our homage and adoration to the eternal God through this sacrifice, at each and every Mass. What this part of the prayer is saying is that not only do we offer these gifts of bread and wine, which will become the Divine Victim who the priest (and the people with him) offer to the Father, but we also offer ourselves, our whole lives. We offer all our prayers, our labors and sufferings, our joys and trials. All of it is being prepared to be lifted up to the sight of the Father at this moment. We have nothing that God did not already give us. At the Mass, we offer it all back to the Living and True God.

In Christ,
Father Amato

A 32+ YEAR THANK YOU TO JANET STODDARD

How do you begin to say "Thank you" to someone who has faithfully and dedicatedly served our Parish for over 32 years!?! There are not words to adequately express our appreciation to Janet for her many years of providing beautiful music to our Parish. Please take the time before you leave Mass today to write a note of thanks on Janet's card, which is on the table in the back of St. Dominic Church. We will also try to have the card available at St. Felix & St. Francis Churches within the next few weekends for those who attend Mass there, but still would like to write an appreciation message to Janet.

TAKE FATHER A MEAL!

Please consider bringing a meal for Father Amato. In thanksgiving for all that he does for our parish, let us lighten his load by keeping him fed so he can focus on the more important task at hand...assisting us to get to heaven!
